Parent / Guardian Code of Conduct

In order for Neyland Cricket club to provide the best possible environment for its junior members the club must insist that parents sign up to the following code of conduct:

- Matters relating to team tactics are the sole responsibility of the club coaching staff and/or the team captain where appropriate. Decisions made by coaches/captains should NOT be criticised by parents/non-participants.
- The batting order will be decided by the coaching staff (and/or captain where appropriate) and NO ONE else.
- Parents and spectators should refrain from public displays of disapproval towards junior members performance.
- Parents and spectators as well as players must respect and accept without question any decision made by the coaching staff or umpires.
- All matters relating to team discipline is the sole responsibility of the club coaching staff and/or team managers. This includes players behavior both on the field and when traveling to and from matches.
- Parents and spectators should at no time publicly disagree with or contradict the club coaching staff in front of junior members.

At any level, youngsters need the support and encouragement of their parents. Neyland Cricket Club values the support it receives from all parents however we firmly believe parents / guardians publicly contradicting the club coaching staff has a definite and detrimental impact on the development of young players.

By adhering to the above code of conduct you are helping us to provide the best possible environment for your child to learn the game and we thank you for this co-operation.

I have read the above code of conduct (for parents and guardians) and agree to adhere to its conditions.
